PRICE THREE CENTS

FRESH SENSATIONS FEATURE NOW FAMOUS ARBUCKLE CASE

CHARGE WITNESSES OBJECT OF UNDUE INFLUENCE THERE

Show Girl Who Attended
Party In Hotel Said To Have Disappeared.

NO ACTION TAKEN

Grand Jury Adjourns Without Acting on Indictment of Murder.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 13.— Fresh sensations outliving even the shock of the announcement that Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, the champion heavyweight laugh producer of the movies, has been charged with the murder of Miss Virginia Rappe featured the developments of the case today.

Of first magnitude was the charge made by District Attorney Matthew Brady that undue influence and pressure of a sinister character had been brought to bear on the witnesses of the case. This charge was followed by the announcement that Alice Blake, one of the show girls who attended the party given by Arbuckle at which Miss Rappe was seized with the illness that resulted in death and the bringing of the murder charge against Arbuckle, has disappeared.

In addition, Brady declared that Zoy Pryon, another show girl also in attendance at the party, had changed her story and faces possible arrest on a charge of perjury.
The Pryon girl was taken from the grand jury room to her home under guard of a detective. The district attorney said her arrest "depended on further developments."

It was reported an investigation was under way to determine the source of a ticket to Alabama alleged to have been found in the Pryon girl's possession.

The grand jury adjourned at an early hour this morning without action on the indictment against Arbuckle charging murder which is sought by the district attorney. It was decided to give the prosecutor further time to present additional evidence.

The long session of the inquisi-torial body beginning early last evening was replete with sensations. Arbuckle himself was called before the grand jury and refused to testify.

The falstaff of the movies tumbled from a day of unusual strain during which he had undergone all of the routine of the criminal proceed-ure from arrest to arraignment, went to sleep early last night and at one o'clock this morning was aroused with difficulty from a sound slumber to appear before the grand jury.

Dressing hastily he was taken by detectives directly from the jail to the grand jury room.

Perspiration poured from his forehead as he answered in a low tone when asked by the foreman of the grand jury to give his version of the St. Francis party.

"My attorneys have advised me to say nothing at this time," he said.

He was led back to his cell, the district attorney and his attaches excluded from the grand jury room and that body settled down to consideration of the testimony.

For nearly an hour they talked over the case behind closed doors.
The foreman Clifford Curtis, emerged and announced, "It was thought best to take no vote on an indictment tonight. We consider it best to give District Attorney Brady more time in which to secure certain information which we desire.
We did not set a date for resumption of the grand jury investigations."

It was following this statement from Foreman Curtis regarding "certain information" desired by that body that District Attorney Brady made his charge of witness tampering.

"We have sent Miss Zoy Pryon home under surveillance. The girl changed her story completely before the grand jury. Whether or not we shall arrest her and charge her with perjury will depend on further developments."

"I am convinced that undue influence and pressure of a sinister character has been brought to bear on her and other witnesses, one of whom, Alice Blake, has mysteriously disappeared from her home in Berkeley. We have been unable to find her."

Nine witnesses were heard by the grand jury during its long session.
Mrs. Bambine Maud Delmont who has assumed the role of prosecutrix first told her story of the party and the events that followed it. She is understood to have related in detail the story she had already given to the police. In this she declared Arbuckle dragged Miss Rappe into his room and locked the door; that she remained there an hour despite her urging that the door be opened; that when the door finally was opened Miss Rappe lay moaning on the bed, dishevelled and in a semi-conscious condition. She further told of the medical treatment of the girl at the hotel and later at the hospital.

CUT EXPENSES OF DELEGATES

Geneva, Sept. 13.—League of nations headquarters is attempting to cut the cost of living for delegates attending the present meeting and the employees of the permanent secretariat. Liquor, and cheap sandwiches have been placed on sale in the restaurant in the basement of the league building, so delegates will not have to go to high priced restaurants. Beer is sold at ten cents a bottle and wine at 25 cents a pint.

BRITAIN PIQUED THAT SHE WAS NOT INFORMED

Was Not Told of Preparations for Disarmament Conference.

F E E L S SLIGHTED

Says Japan Still Stumbling Block in Way of Favorable Results.

London, Sept. 13.—There is a feeling of pique in British official circles because Great Britain has not been kept fully informed as to the preparations for the far east and disarmament conference in Washington, it was revealed today.
This revelation came about through a cablegram from the New York correspondent of the Daily Express, which said in part:

"The United States does not intend to engage in naval rivalry with Great Britain; the Washington administration is willing tacitly to recognize Great Britain's special position as an island power with enormous naval commitments."

This cablegram brought forth a prompt denial from the British foreign office that there has been any communication with Washington upon the subject. Great Britain, it was declared, has never sought nor has she obtained any such statement as to the position of Washington upon the British naval position.

"We have not received a single communication from Washington on the subject of the forthcoming conference in the last five weeks. It is obvious that under such circumstances America and Great Britain cannot have agreed upon anything at all as regards a naval program."

While officials do not speak their mind openly they indicate that British officialdom feels slighted because it was not more fully informed regarding the preliminary plans for the conference. It was declared that Great Britain cannot appoint her delegates until the foreign office has been informed as to the subjects to be discussed.

The Daily Express story says that the opinion prevails in Washington that Japan is still under considerable military influence and hints that this is a stumbling block in the way of favorable results from the Washington conference. This view finds ready support in London.

The International News Service is informed that not even Japan herself knows the ultimate cost of her projected naval construction program. In addition to the new warships Japan has a great program for aerial expansion. Large purchases have been made through British airplane manufacturers and Japan has also made large purchases of machine guns.

HALF MILLION IS WASTED IS CHARGE

Columbus, Sept. 13.—"Plumbers and policemen are being substituted for scientific medical men in the soldier bureau at Washington, D. C.," declared Dr. Haven Emerson, medical adviser of the bureau, addressing the Mississippi Valley conference on tuberculosis, in session here.

Col. Robert U. Patterson, army medical corps, will succeed Dr. Emerson, resigned, Thursday, as the bureau's medical adviser. Col. Patterson was formerly chief of the medical personnel of the American Red Cross.

Claiming $500,000 a year in salaries is being unnecessarily distributed for political patronage, Dr.
Emerson declared that the bureau, taken away from the public health service, is being handled like a political organization.

Dr. Emerson, who recently conducted a health survey in Cleveland formerly was health commissioner in New York City.

More generous provision for the study of tuberculosis, including permanent foundations affiliated with teaching hospitals was urged by Dr.
Allen K. Krause, editor of the American review of tuberculosis and director of Ross foundation for tuberculosis research of Johns Hopkins medical school.

BOSTON MEN SOLD LIKE SLAVES

Fifty jobless men were recently placed on the auction block on Boston Commons. Stripped to the waist, after the custom of the old slave auctions, they declared their willingness to work by standing before a crowd of thousands, offering their services to the highest bidder. The good points of the men, including war veterans, unable to find employment, were pointed out by Urban Ledoux, philanthropic worker who conducted the sale.
The photo shows Ledoux auctioning one of the "slaves."

Death List in Texas Flood Still Mounting

Known Dead, 168—Believe
Over 300 Have Lost Their Lives.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 13.—The number of known dead as the result of the cloudburst and tornado which struck South, Central and Southwest Texas last Friday night had mounted to 168 today. It now seems certain that over 300 must have lost their lives. Latest reports were from localities where it is known floods prevailed but no previous mention had been made of loss of life.

Following is summary of bodies found:

San Antonio 49, nearly all Mexicans; Elm Grove 29, all Mexicans; Lanport 23, all Mexicans; Thorndale
45 all Mexicans; Alligator Creek 5
Mexicans; Lawrence Creek 3 negroes;

Bland Farm, near Taylor, 4 Mexicans; Sangabriel, 10—one white, one negro;
8 Mexicans.

Maynard Robinson, division superintendent and F. W. Leatherberry, division civil engineer of the Santa Fe at headquarters at Temple, have been missing since Sunday after starting out on a trip of inspection in a row boat.

It is impossible to accurately estimate property damage although conservative estimate places the loss in the stricken district at $20,000,000 including loss to crops and damage to rail lines and stationed equipment.

Practically every bridge in Milan county, both highways and railroads has gone with the flood.

Railroad traffic is still badly hampered but strenuous efforts are being made to restore normal conditions at the earliest possible moment.

MONROE DOCTRINE NO OBSTACLE IN WAY OF LEAGUE POWERS DECLARES BOLIVIA

Explains Statement That Nation Does Not Recognize Document As Extending to Present Dispute
With Chili and Bolivia

Geneva, Sept. 13.—Acting upon advice from the home government, the Bolivian delegation to the league of nations assembly meeting today issued a statement explaining the previous declaration that it did not recognize the Monroe doctrine as extending to the present dispute with Chili.

"Bolivia does not consider the Monroe doctrine as being incompatible with the powers conferred upon the league of nations," said the Bolivian statement.

The Bolivian statement grew out of the controversy with Chile over the Tacna-Arica treaty of 1904 which Bolivia wants the league to revise. Chile contends that the league has no right to act and that intervention by the league might be construed as a violation of the Monroe doctrine.

The Bolivian delegation announced first that it had communicated with Washington and that the American government had made it known that it did not oppose Bolivia's appeal to the league. Later the Bolivians said they did not recognize the Monroe doctrine in the present case at all. The telegram from the Bolivian government resolved, The eve of the first ballot to select judges for the international court of justice and arbitration found the delegates engaged in political maneuvering and log rolling.

The league founders are anxious to put the out alive all suspicion of politics, but human vanity and national pride intervened with the result that the various nations are fighting for representation among the eleven judges and four deputy judges with all of the zeal of ward heelers, although the electioneering is being carried out in a dignified way.

The definite refusal of Elihu Root to serve on the bench of the international court may result in America not having a representative in the tribunal, although the names of two other Americans have been put forward—John Bassett Moore and Dean Roscoe Pound, of the Harvard law school.

SINN FEIN NOTE BEARERS ARRIVE

Inverness, Scotland, Sept. 13.—The Sinn Fein couriers, bearing Eamonn Devalera's reply to the British cabinet's Irish peace conference note arrived here today. The Sinn Fein note was immediately placed in the hand of Premier Lloyd George who had previously been notified that it was on the way.

START PROCEEDINGS

Washington, Sept. 13.—Benjamin C. Marsh, executive secretary of the People's Reconstruction League announced today he planned to institute mandamus proceedings in one of the district of Columbia courts to compel the senate finance committee to hold public hearings on the revenue revision bill.

America Will Have Two Powerful Weapons at Meet

Huge Debt Owed by Other Nations to U. S. and Contemplated Tariff Wall May Serve as "Big Sticks" Over Foreign Countries.

Washington, Sept. 13.—When the great powers of the world gather around the conference table here next November to discuss reduction of armament and measures to eliminate discord in the far east, two all-powerful weapons will be in the hands of the American "big four" to lend driving force to American argument.

One of these is the $11,000,000,- 000 debt which the participating nations owe the United States. The other is the contemplated American tariff wall, which, if necessary, can be erected so high that it will keep away from American shores the products of nearly every country in the world.

Every nation participating in the conference with the sole exception of Japan, is hugely indebted to the United States for money obtained during the world war. Thus, if some of the nations object to a limitation of reduction of armament the United States could with perfect decorum suggest that if the objectors have sufficient national resources to keep on arming they certainly have enough resources to take up long overdue obligations.

Great Britain, with the greatest navy in the world, owes the United States approximately $4,000,000,000.
France, with the greatest standing army in the world, owes the United States approximately $3,000,- 000,000. Italy, with an army and navy of reasonable proportions, owes the United States about $2,000,000,- 000. With the exception of Great Britain, who has paid a little, on none of these debts have the interest payments, been met and the amounts owed are steadily increasing.

Japan is not indebted to the United States, but industrial Japan and temperament with the silk magmats contemplate with every breath the enactment of a tariff program which would tend to restrict the trade with this country. The United States is Japan's greatest customer.

That the administration does not intend to relinquish either of these powerful persuaders before Nov. 11 became apparent today when it was learned that the legislative plans for the remainder of the special session of congress do not include that they shall be disposed of.

Present plans of the administration it is learned do not contemplate the passage of a tariff law until after the first of the year, by which time the trend of the Washington conference will be definitely known.
Likewise the administration's bill for readjustment of the foreign indebtedness has been indefinitely delayed. The so-called Penrose bill granting practically unlimited authority for the secretary of the treasury to negotiate a settlement of the foreign loans will be delayed until the November conference takes some definite trend.

SPANISH KING TO FLEE IN PLANE IF REVOLT STARTED

The fastest airplane ever built, capable of maintaining a speed of 190 miles an hour and piloted by the famous war ace, Lieutenant Jail-let has left Paris for Madrid. The plane will be ready, in case a revolution should break out to convey King Alfonso to England. The trip would be accomplished in nine hours. The machine is the last word in luxurious airplanes. It is upholstered in Russian leather and contains seats for the King and Queen and three other members of the royal family. The outside of the machine is decorated in gold and bears the royal arms.

OHIO WESLEYAN TO RECEIVE BEQUESTS

Columbus, Sept. 13.—A bequest, valued at about $1,500,000 from the estate of the late Z. L. White, Columbus merchant, will go to Ohio Wesleyan university, according to his will just filed in probate court here. Mr. White for many years was a member of O. W. U. board of trustees.

The will provides that a trust shall be created to take over the building in North High street, containing the Z. L. White department store, with E. D. Jones, son-in-law, as trustee, and that all incomes,
of ships had seating of ships, loss of
return cargo and disappointment to passengers.

Net income from the building until the existing lease expires in 1940 is about $31,000. Mr. Jones will receive a $10,000 annuity and Mrs. Jones, $15,000 from the building income during their life time.
When all persons receiving annuties die the building will become the property of Ohio Wesleyan university and the university will receive all the income from it.

Provision is made that if the income should become more than is needed to maintain the proposed school of economics, the excess may be used to benefit the university as a whole.

Mrs. Jones receives outright all other property, the value of which is not disclosed by the will.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER BUSINESS SECTION

Russellville, Ala., Sept. 13.—Russell ville's business district is today a mass of smoldering ruins. Five which is believed to have broken out in the basement of a barbershop swept through the principal business section and completely destroyed or badly damaged eleven business houses before it was finally subdued.

Property damage is estimated at more than $200,000.

"FATTY" ARBUCKLE FILMS LIKELY TO BE BARRED IN OHIO-MANAGERS CANCEL FILMS

Columbus, Sept. 13.—That movie films showing "Fatty" Arbuckle may be barred by order of state director of education Riegel, from picture screens throughout Ohio if it is deemed that "public welfare requires it" is the declaration made here today by Attorney General Price.

The attorney general made the statement after conferring with Gov. Davis and Director Riegel who has charge of the state censorship of motion pictures.

Columbus, Sept. 13.—"Fatty" Arbuckle films may be barred in Ohio Director of Education Riegel, of whose department the division of film censorship is a part, indicated yesterday he favored such action if possible under the Ohio law.

Mrs. Evelyn F. Snow film censor favors it unqualifiedly.
"It is my opinion that theaters will voluntarily quit showing the Arbuckle pictures," Riegel said. "That's what I would do if I were them."

Riegel said he tried to see Attorney General Price about it and found him busy with other things.
"And then I was too busy myself with school matters to pay much attention to Arbuckle," he said. "I expect to consult Mr. Price about it today."

Riegel explained that it's a case of revoking approval on pictures which in themselves are not bad. He said he wanted to be sure of his rights under the law before acting.

That Riegel's size-up of the situation is correct is evidenced by dispatches from all over the country Moving picture theaters everywhere are cancelling Arbuckle pictures.

Theater managers at Chicago
Toledo, Youngstown, Marietta, Cambridge, Pittsburgh, Columbus and other cities announced their cancellation of proposed showings of Arbuckle films. In Los Angeles, center of the movie industry, the owner of a theater cancelled Sunday night's showing of an Arbuckle comedy which has been running a week and which would have completed its run that night.
No Arbuckle films were being shown in the movie metropolis yesterday.

The Michigan Motion Picture Exhibitors' Association advised its members to discontinue showing Arbuckles comedies, and placed under its ban any members who disobey the injunction.

The Memphis board of censors announced that Arbuckle comedies would not be allowed in that city until after the close of the trial, as did John Bently, commissioner of public safety at Jersey City.

SHIPPING BOARD MANAGEMENT TO RECEIVE PROBE

Lasker's Administration To Be Investigated at Inquiry.

WASTE IS CHARGED

Disturbing Reports Reach
Members of Congress
On Matter.

Washington, Sept. 13.—A new congressional investigation of the United States Shipping board—of the administration of A. D. Lasker and the new board—will be undertaken by the house appropriations committee when it settles down during October and November to consider appropriations for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1922, it was learned today.

Disturbing reports have reached members of congress that waste and extravagance have not been checked by the new board, that there continues to exist lack of decision and mismanagement in the operation of the shipping board ships and that no attempt is being made to foster and encourage American independent steamship lines, or enthusiasm for and loyalty to an American merchant marine.

It is stated that the shipping board has at work a force of some forty expert accountants setting up a new system of accounting, drawing an average of $50 a day with no contract for completion of the work. It is charged that this force will be employed for sixty days, the total cost being run up to $120,000.

Other charges made against the new board are:
That under the plan of reorganization the shipping board forces have been made too heavy with high priced officials, shipping districts have been regrouped with a director, newly created official at a high salary, being placed over two or more district heads.

That divided responsibility among a large number of operating officials at Washington and in the shipping districts has resulted in costly delays and confusion in making allocations
of ships had seating of ships, loss of
return cargo and disappointment to passengers.

That American operators have been encouraged or left free to use ships of foreign flags when shipping board ships were available for allocation.

That a large number of high class American lawyers, not necessarily versed in maritime law, have been engaged and left free to fix their own fees to handle shipping board litigation when the board has a highly paid general counsel and an excellent legal staff.

CUPID LOSES HIS GAME AS GREEK MATCH IS FAILURE

Cupid, the intrepid little god of love, played a losing hand in the love affairs of Damian Phillips, 32, Cincinnati Greek and his intended wife, Helen Gezio, 25, who journeyed from her native land to this country recently to become his bride.

A matrimonial match, made "sight unseen," in far off Greece, was split upon the rock of such a mundane occurrence as a delayed train. Other inoffensive matters-of-fact contributed to the general disaster of the match. Now Miss Gezio is considering the idea of going to Chicago to make her home, with relatives and Phillips is maintaining an adamant determination to have nothing to do with her.

The affair between Phillips, who has been in America 17 years, and Miss Gezio, was made by an aunt of the girl living in Athens. With matrimony as the promised goal, the girl left her native country, not having yet set eyes on her future husband.
Phillips left for New York to meet her. They failed to meet, because of delayed trains, according to Phillips, and this was the first break in their love affair.

The next false note came when, in conference with the young woman and her relatives, Phillips declined to make a money settlement on her before marriage. "It is not customary among Greeks whose brides come to America to demand a bridal portion," said Phillips. "This is un-American."
In America we follow the ways of Americans." The third discord developed when an uncle, speaking in behalf of the girl, suggested a delay of three weeks before marriage.

"Even in Macedonia, where the young lady has always lived, no dowry is demanded," said Phillips.
"I found Miss Gezio most angry when I interviewed her after her arrival here. I had failed, because of train delays to meet her in New York and had gone to Xenia, but we missed each other there, too."

When asked if the young lady was pretty, Phillips replied, "Not to me, I am afraid."

SECRETARY WOUNDED

Tokio, Sept. 13.—Secretary Suzuki of the Japanese government in Korea was wounded when two bombs were exploded in the government offices at Seoul today. The bombs are believed to have been intended for Governor Gen. Gaito, head of the Japanese administration in Korea.

TWO HUNDRED AND SIXTY EIGHT SEEK ELECTION TO TOWNSHIP, VILLAGE AND CITY OFFICES IN NOVEMBER BALLOTING

Two hundred and sixty-eight candidates for various city, township and village offices have filed their petitions with Paul H. Cresswell, clerk of the board of elections.

Monday afternoon the board of elections went over this list, checking the petitions, to determine whether each had the proper number of signers. As a result of the check, H. V. Johnson, Clyde Huffman and A. B. Lewis, candidates for trustees, F. A. Charles, candidate for clerk, H. C. Fisher, candidate for treasurer and Henry Thomas, candidate for assessor, all in Jefferson township, will not be placed on the tickets at the November election because they did not have the required 25 signers to their respective petitions.

They represent seekers of trustees, clerk, treasurer, assessor, mayor, marshal, constables, justice of the peace, members of council, members of board of public affairs and members of boards of education.

Spahr, seeking re-election on the Xenia city board of education, two to elect, will have opposition in E. C. Schweibold, who expressed his intention of running, filing his papers, Friday. Interest will also center in the county school board fight. A. L. Fisher, W. B. Bryson and J. E. Hastings, being the candidates who filed.

Outside of the election of various office seekers, the only other question to come before the voters will be the question of a $10,000 bond issue for the purpose of erecting a new school in the Beavercreek township school district. The list of candidates follow:

NO REASON FOR IT

When Xenia Citizens Show a Way. There can be no reasons why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Xenia citizen says:

J. M. Stokesbury, 122 N. Columbus St., says: "When I leaned over to pick up anything and went to straighten again, a pain caught me in my back and I wasn't able to straighten up for some time. I finally got so bad off, I was laid up for quite awhile and I ached all over. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Sayre & Hemphill's Drug store and after I had used four boxes, I was entirely cured. It has been several years since and I haven't had any return of the trouble." Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stokesbury had. COULD HARDLY STRAIGHTEN UP

When the kidneys are overworked or disordered and fail to throw out waste matter from the system, it causes aches, pains, lame back, swollen ankles, sore joints, dizziness, floating specks, etc. J. W. Seabock, Chester, Pa., writes: "My kidneys and back hurt me so when I got out of bed in the morning I could hardly straighten up. Had to rub the small of my back before I could walk. I could hardly button my shoes. I haven't felt the soreness since I took Foley Kidney Pills. Sayre & Hemphill."

ANSWERED LETTERS

Bobby:—The henna shampoo will likely darken your light hair, even though it is already of that tint.

Rilda:—The benzoin you mention, is correct and it will whiten the skin. Fatten the fingers by massaging them with a skin food.

J. M. N.:—The oil in nuts is fattening. It has no effect upon the complexion, unless it causes overtaxation of the digestion system in taking care of the nuts themselves. Which hinders the skin, but it will not keep you from being sunburned. Use it after and not before exposure.

Margie:—Wear straight one-piece dresses, loosely girdled. Your figure will improve after you have fully developed. Bobbed hair will look very well. Send a stamp envelope for the diet list on reduction, as it is not the amount of food, but the choice of it, which counts in reduction as well as that required for gaining weight.

Jo and Ma:—You can find the names of these producers by writing to the magazines published in the interest of moving pictures.

Constant reader:—Soak the spot in milk until the ink loosens, then wash it using a white, or any soap of good quality. If the material is white and the stain of long standing, Javelle Water will remove it.

E. Y. W.:—Your skin is too dry to use so much hot water and if you do, always follow it with plenty of cold cream. If this is made of vegetable oils, it cannot grow hair. Remove all surplus cream after completing the massage. The moles can be removed either at a beauty parlor or by your own doctor. Personally, I do not advise the removal of such blemishes.

Mrs. M. H. D.:—Marie D.; Ophelia;—If you will send a stamped addressed envelope, the information will be mailed to you.

Hazel B.; Baby; B. E. M., Brownie, Marguerite:—The girl of five feet nine, should weigh 145 pounds. The one at 14 should weigh 105. B. E. M. should weigh the same. The girl of 15 years, five and a half, should weigh 125 pounds. At 18 and five feet, one inch tall, the weight should be 115 pounds.

Blue eyes, John P. F., Leslie G., A. D., Ophelia:—Blackheads, pimples and oily skins should be treated where they originate in the digestive tract. The blackhead begins by being overworked pore, that is struggling to free the system of impurities. In this state, it is an easy matter for it to become a place for dirt to lodge. It does not take long before this dirt becomes impacted and nature cannot throw it off unassisted. Pimples relieve the system, otherwise the body would be poisoned from the ferment. That goes on in the digestive system of those people so affected. The oily skin can be traced to the liver. Clear the system. Try the yeast treatment, correct the diet and all these imperfections will leave. Blackheads will yield in time after clearing the skin with creams.

EFFECT NEW RATES

Washington, Sept. 13.—One of the biggest single steps for the relief of western livestock raisers was taken today by the interstate commerce commission in authorizing reduced rates on livestock products from territory west of the Mississippi river to Chicago. The new rates which range from one cent to 25 cents per 100 pounds becomes effective Sept. 20.

HIGH SCHOOL WILL PUBLISH PAPER TWICE A MONTH

The Central High Review, official publication of Central High School will be resumed this fall as a separate publication.

This was the decision reached at a meeting of the staff held Tuesday morning, at which time it was agreed to issue the first copy Friday. During the coming semester the paper will be issued bi-monthly instead of weekly.

During the latter part of the last school term the paper was carried as a department of the Gazette and Republican every week.

During that period the same staff was retained, all the copy was written by staff members, and its publication was supervised by the staff.

Because of the fact that George Shoup, editor-in-chief has gone to Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, to enter school and did not return to Central High this year, a new editor-in-chief had to be named. Miss Eleanor Kiernan, senior, being elected to fill the position.

Miss Kiernan was feature editor on the staff, and a successor to that position has not yet been named. Miss Helen Santmyer, of the high school faculty, has been named faculty advisor, succeeding Miss Janet McBane. Miss Santmyer was at one time on the Wellesley College paper and recently has been on the staff of Scribner's Magazine.

SEARCH WOMEN FOR WEAPONS IN TRIAL

Courthouse, Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 13.—Even women were searched for weapons before they were permitted today to enter the courtroom where, with state police and militia on guard, Reese Chambers and Fred Braggar, union miners and mountaineers, face a fight for their lives, charged with murder in connection with the death of J. W. Ferguson, who was killed in the bloody battle of Matewan a year ago with six other Baldwin-Felts detectives following attempts to evict striking miners' families from company houses.

So critical is the situation Major Thomas B. Davis, state military commander of Mingo county under martial law, has ordered no chance be taken. Judge Bailey, presiding at the trial, today announced that hereafter no bail will be permitted persons on charges growing out of the war between the union miners on one side and the coal operators and state forces on the other.

Can She Make Japs Grow Taller?

Mrs. Susan Thornton Henning, beautiful society woman, of New York and Kentucky, who has been invited to go to Japan to teach the Mikado's men of affairs how to increase the height of Japanese men by proper feeding and milk dieting, which, she has learned will increase stature by her experiments with Jersey cattle. Mrs. Henning has produced the most perfect cattle in the world, which have won the highest milk and butter tests. The Emperor thinks that the kind of milk diet, water, soil and vegetation which produce perfect stock will increase the stature of his subjects.

FIVE HALED INTO COURT FOLLOWING AUTO ACCIDENT

Five men, all giving their addresses as Springfield, were arraigned in the court of Magistrate J. E. Jones, Tuesday, on charges of disorderly conduct and driving an automobile while intoxicated as the result of an automobile crash on the Xenia and Cedarville pike, two miles west of Cedarville at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, when a Mrs. McMillan, Cincinnati, received bruises and a cut on her face, and the Ford car in which she was riding with her husband, was wrecked.

The sheriff who had started in search of the five men, on a report from Cedarville that they had passed through that village and were in such a condition that they would prove dangerous to other motorists, did not come upon the men until after the accident had happened. All five were placed under arrest and brought to this city. They were slated as James J. McGuire, William Davis, Tom Farrell, Mike Norton and O. M. Bisher all of Springfield.

Tuesday morning, Bisher entered a plea of guilty to a charge of intoxication, and was fined $15 and costs. The other men were to be given an opportunity to plead later. According to authorities, McGuire now has a $100 fine hanging over his head, as a result of a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. On that occasion he was arrested at Trebeins and was fined $200 and costs, and $100 of the fine was suspended by the court on a promise of good behavior.

Mr. McMillan, driver of the wrecked auto, told people in the neighborhood that he had piloted his car to the extreme right of the road in an effort to avoid the Buick occupied by the five Springfield men, but that the heavier car crashed directly into his machine. Mrs. McMillan received painful bruises and a small cut on her face. Her husband was uninjured. The Ford car was partly demolished by the impact two wheels being torn off and the front and rear axles broken.

A wheel of the Buick was demolished. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan were driving from Cincinnati to Columbus at the time of the accident and they were picked up by a passing motorist and taken to Cedarville.

Before the accident the men passed through Cedarville and their visit to the new Exchange bank there caused the rumor to be floated that an attempt was being made to rob the institution. It later developed that McGuire had worked as plasterer on the building during its construction and had invited his friends in to see the interior of the structure.

Mr. Williamson visited the Court House, Saturday and again called on his fellow workers there, Monday. He has been recuperating from his long illness at his home in the Jamestown pike, since leaving the McClellan hospital and now feels able to resume his duties as commissioner.

MANY DELEGATES ATTEND W. C. T. U. CONVENTION HERE

About seventy delegates representing every township of the county, will be presented at the County Convention of the W. C. T. U. to be held at the Friends church in this city, Friday, September 16.

The convention will be composed of two sessions, one in the morning and one in the evening. Reports of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. C. Ledbetter, and treasurer, Mrs. Ada Baker, will feature the morning session, followed by an address by the County President, Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter. The election of officers will be held at the close of the session.

Mrs. D. W. Cosley, of this city, will make an address at the afternoon session, upon "Japan and Her Customs." Miss Mary Ervin, who is expected to return the latter part of the week from San Francisco, where she attended the National W. C. T. U. Convention, will give a report of the convention at the session. Effort is being made by the members to secure J. E. Jones, Justice of the Peace, to deliver an address at the meeting upon "Law Enforcement."

A round-table discussion, in charge of Mrs. J. S. Van Eaton, will be held at the close of the program, when suggestions will be made concerning plans for the coming year.

Latin Beauty Held For Murder Anxious to Die

Mrs. Jususista D'Agostini, wealthy widow of Alameda, Cal., who shot and killed Arnold Postel, a prominent merchant of the same city because, she says, he tried to kiss her, asked no sympathy, is ready to die for the crime. In 1916 she shot her husband and killed him. She was acquitted on grounds that she killed him in self defense. It was shown that he had beaten her. Her defense in this case will probably be based on an insanity plea.

COMMISSIONER TO RESUME DUTIES

County Commissioner R. D. Williamson, who has been ill since early in June is expected to resume his duties in the Court House, next week.

Mr. Williamson visited the Court House, Saturday and again called on his fellow workers there, Monday. He has been recuperating from his long illness at his home in the Jamestown pike, since leaving the McClellan hospital and now feels able to resume his duties as commissioner.

BURCH DENIES HE CONFESSED CRIME

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 13.—"It is an infernal lie from beginning to end."

Speaking in a clear firm voice and looking the interviewer squarely in the face as he pressed his cheek close to the bars of his cell in the county jail today, Arthur Burch branded a statement of Chandler Sprague, a reporter of the Los Angeles Examiner that Burch had confessed to the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, as a "tissue of falsehoods."

"I have talked with Chandler Sprague but I have never uttered a word to him that would warrant his writing such a completely unjustified and untruthful statement."

Burch had been sleeping soundly and arose from his cot to talk to the reporter. He appeared to be astounded when told of Sprague's revelations.

After making his statement he said he did not care to give any further comment until he had talked with his attorney, Paul Schenck.

Mrs. Oberchain also firmly denied to an interviewer at the county jail that there is a word of truth in Burch's purported statement in so far as she is concerned.

FORMER EMPLOYE OF STATE FOUND SHOT

Springfield police believe a drunken quarrel was responsible for the death of Edward Fahey, 27, Springfield, who was found dead from a revolver bullet, on the top stair steps at the home of Joseph Lee, 24, his cousin, at eight o'clock Monday night.

Lee and John Hession, both of whom were seen with Fahey earlier in the evening, when all three are said to have been intoxicated, have been arrested and will be formally charged with the crime. Coroner A. H. Potter, of Clark county, rendered a verdict of homicide, Monday night, and pronounced death due to gunshot wounds inflicted by an unknown person.

Fahey was employed for four years as secretary of the state board of pardons, and later as clerk with the D. T. & I. railroad. He had been out of employment for several months. He lived alone with his mother, Mrs. Bridget Fahey.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE INSTALLED

The new private telephone system between the water works station at Old Town and the City Building, was installed, Monday.

The private line was installed in order not to depend on a public utility phone in case of a hurry call to the water works and will result in a saving to the city, it is said. The line will be used to inform the station in case of fire so that extra pumping can be started against a possible decline of pressure. The box in the City Building is in Police headquarters where it will be available night and day.

IF WE TAKE MORE THAN OUR SHARE, SOMEBODY ELSE GETS LESS THAN HIS SHARE.

The poet has asked why should the spirit of mortal be proud. The prosaic likewise are led to ask why any man should be puffed up with conceit for aught that he has done. How can we look at a star and reflect on the size of it and still believe in our own bigness and our own infatuated dignity?

One of the things a child has to learn when he comes away from the sheltering arms of his home is that he must now make a place for himself in a crowd of eager competitors. They all are seeking what he seeks. It will be no "walk-over." That is, he may not trample upon the individual rights of others. He must defer; he must be patient, and mannerly, and bide his time and take his chance—and still be alert to go and to do, to work and to win, depending on his own right arm and his own force and motion to succeed.

Perhaps the child had his own way too much. He was spoiled; and now comes the sudden shock of disillusionment as he finds that there are others to consider.

The man who has to work for a livelihood ought to know better than to be overbearing; the man whose wealth permits him to be idle should have learned that he holds his great possessions but as steward or trustee—the servant of a power higher than his head. Neither poverty nor riches establishes the right to be domineering, brusque, inconsiderate and inflated with the notion that whatever stands in our path is a thing to be crushed, and our own pleasure must be gratified even at the cost of pain to many.

The world is so acutely and so constantly interdependent that the part each woman or man plays in it directly matters to all the rest. If we take more than our share, somebody else gets less than his share. But there is more than enough to go round—there is plenty for everybody—if we all have the will to work and if in that willingness we grant others the same right to earn a living that we ourselves enjoy. Those who refuse to obey the law that bestows the reward upon the workers and penalizes the idlers have no right to dictate to the industrious who have received what they deserve. And there are idle poor, just as there are idle rich, who cling to the wrong and the selfish point of view.

"THE PORTAL OF PEACE."

It can be done. Doubters, carpers, pessimists and those of little faith to the contrary notwithstanding, it can be done because it has been done.

There is a town in the State of Washington that few men heard of until yesterday. The village of Blaine stands on the American-Canadian border, and these men and women from Canada and the United States have dedicated an arch of steel and of concrete, a "Portal of Peace."

The American coming up from the South sees the legend "Open for One Hundred Years." The Canadian coming down from the North sees another legend, "May These Doors Never Be Closed."

This gate that stands astride the boundary is a steel-and-stone symbol of the peace that has been kept along 3000 miles of border for better than a century. English forces and American troops have not faced each other in anger since the guns of Lundys Lane, of Lake Erie and New Orleans were stilled. Here is a border where the boundary posts are so many marks of good faith, good will and understanding, instead of so many sign-posts of hatreds, suspicion and clashing interests.

Between Great Britain and Canada to the North and the forty-eight States of the American Union on the South there has been the mutual and strong desire for a peaceful and a disarmed border. They wanted this peace and this border untroubled by rifles at the ready, free from garrisons and sentinels, and they have it.

Time has shown that there was no more need of arms and armed men on the border and armed ships on the Great Lakes than there was for Illinois and Michigan, Indiana and Wisconsin to maintain armed guards on their boundaries and fighting ships on the lakes, to guard against each other.

OHIO CITIES' BONDED INDEBTEDNESS IS HALF BILLION.

Bonded indebtedness of Ohio cities now totals more than a half billion dollars. It increased last year more than $53,000,000.

How serious a problem municipal indebtedness is rapidly becoming, can be understood by the fact that in eighty Ohio cities 50 per cent of the average 1920 dollar had to be used for sinking fund purposes, while in one city only 13 cents out of each dollar received in the treasury was available for current expenses.

Ohio's total tax duplicate for last year amounted to $10,672,279,582, which was a gain of $1,070,125,918 over the year preceding. The duplicate for 1921 is expected to show another great increase.

Last year the average tax rate in eighty Ohio cities increased from an average of $16.60 per thousand dollars to $20.40 per thousand dollars.

In most of these cities, however, the era of bond voting apparently has passed and the people are learning that mortgaging the future is easy, when the enthusiasm is on, but hard, indeed, when it comes time to pay interest and installments on the principal.

TYPHOID FEVER IN HIGHLAND COUNTY

Concerning the typhoid fever situation in Highland county, the Hillsboro Gazette says:

"Every few days new cases of typhoid fever are being reported from different parts of the county. This bids fair to be what used to be called a typhoid year. All investigations in this county point to flies being responsible for the spread of the disease. Before the days of screening against flies typhoid was the curse of the country, but now that screens are almost universally used the number of cases has decreased very markedly, but every few years we have a scourge of flies and then we see an increase in the number of typhoid cases. It seems that eight of every ten cases of typhoid in rural communities are fly born, so every effort should be made to keep them from coming in contact with food stuffs and from contact with intestinal discharges.

"Many persons are being inoculated against the disease and this is the road to safety and assurance against illness."

EVIL REPORT.

I hold that Amos Aikenside is all pure wool and three feet wide. I've dealt with him for many moons and got the worth of my doubloons. He's sold me milk and melted ice, and always at a decent price. Men say that Amos must be watched; his moral character is botched, and if he gets a chance, they say, he'll bring his harpoon into play. My neighbors sometimes say, "Gadzooks, why patronize that prince of crooks?" Perhaps the truth has not been told; who knows what grudges they may hold against this Amos Aikenside, who sells fresh henfruit, plain or fried? Perhaps their hatred is bestowed because he asked for what they owed; for many people's heads get sore when they lose credit at the store. Perhaps they hate this Amos jay because he doesn't vote their way. A score of reasons might be found why they rear up when he's around, but while old Amos treats me right I shall not say to him, "Good night." What others say about a gent does not impress me worth a cent, so long as he seems good and straight, and gives full measure, honest weight. Of worth man cannot be a judge if he is moved by every grudge that drooling gossips may expound, with futile heat and empty sound.

DINNER STORIES

Johnnie, aged six, was one of those mischievous little fellows spanked frequently by mother. One day father came home in time to see Johnnie with red eyes and big tears trickling down his cheeks. "Well, son, what is the trouble?" he asked.

"Oh, nothing in particular, pop, only I just had a quarrel with that wife of yours and she spanked me."

A doctor who was superintendent of the Sunday school in a small village asked one of the boys this question:

"Willie, will you tell me what we must do in order to get to heaven?"

Said Willie, "We must die."

"Very true," replied the doctor, "but tell me what we must do before we die."

"We must get sick," said Willie, "and send for you."

Methodists attending the North Indiana M. E. conference in Richmond were discussing what had become of a number of the old-time ministers they had known.

"When the cost of living became so high," said one of the group, "our pastor resigned, went to live on his farm and now is in the dairy business."

"And I suppose," said another, "he now sells pastorized milk."

"Daddy" asked a mite of eight summers, "God makes us do the good things, doesn't He?"

"Yes," replied the father.

"And Satan makes us do the naughty things?"

"Again, yes."

"Well, who makes us do all the funny ones?"

A lady who had been giving a party told her maid to put away all the refreshments that were left on the tables before retiring to bed. The next day, on looking, the lady could not find them, and called to her maid:

"Bridget, what did you do with those things I told you to put away last night?"

"Sure, mum, and yez told me to put 'em away, and I did, mum, and enjoyed 'em."

After a ruthless process of rejection there were five applicants for the post of errand boy left for the head of the firm himself to interview.

It was one of his flippant mornings, and he sought to amuse himself by asking the eager boys puzzling and quite irrelevant questions to test their general knowledge.

"How far away from the earth is the North Star?" was the question he fired at the third shiny-faced youngster.

"I'm sorry I cannot give you the exact figure offhand, sir," was the reply, "but on a rough estimate I should say that it is far enough away not to interfere with me running errands."

He got the post.

"Supposing I give you your supper," said the tired-looking woman, "what will you do to earn it?"

"Madame," said the wanderer, "I'd give you the opportunity of seeing a man go through a whole meal without finding fault with a single thing."

The woman thought a minute and then told him to come in and he'd set the table.

"Rastus, how is it you have given up going to church?" asked Pastor Brown.

"Well, sah," replied Rastus, "it's dis way. I likes to take an active part, an' I used to pass de collection basket, but dey's give de job to Brothah Green, who jest returned from ovah thai-ah."

"In recognition of his heroic service, I suppose?"

"No, sah, I reckon he got dat job in recognition o' his having lost one o' his hands."

The civil service commission requires that every seeker after government employment shall fill out a regular printed application form. The following was received from a southern backwoodsman:

Question 1—"In what state or territory do you claim actual bona fide residence?"

Answer—"Alabama."

Question 2—"Length of residence in such state or territory?"

Answer—"Forty-two feet nine inches."

"How did you enjoy the sermon?"

"Too short."

"That so? I never heard anyone complain that a sermon was too brief before."

"Well, you see, it was this way: I'd hardly dropped asleep before the thing was over."

There is a New York scientist who is greatly interested in coal mining. He decided to subscribe to a press-clipping bureau, to get every new slant on coal. He said to the clipping bureau: "I want everything you can find about coal."

The first clipping he got was an article about a man who was suing his wife for a separation because she hit him in the head with a lump of coal.

"The reparations plan is strongly opposed by the Germans, I see."

"Yes, they think the indemnity should be paid the other way about — by the allies to Germany — because the allies let Germany start the war."

"See that funny little man sitting over in the corner? He has one of the finest natural tenor voices in the country, but he simply won't sing."

"Really? He won't? Well, that's the only kind of tenor I like."

The woman in the crowded downtown department store wore a very irritated expression on her face.

"I've been waiting such a long time," she complained to one of the clerks.

"Sorry, madam," he said, "but we must take our customers as they come."

"Wretched service!" the woman was heard to mutter.

"Now, what is it, madam?" the clerk asked, returning to her.

"Could you tell me how to get to the station?" she asked.

The young mother was bathing her baby when a neighbor's little girl came into the room carrying a doll, and stood watching the operation for some time. The doll was the worse for wear, being minus an arm and a leg. Finally she said to the mother of the baby:

"How long have you had your baby?"

"Three months," said the proud mother.

The little girl glanced at her own battered infant. "My, but you have kept it nice!" she said, with an envious sigh.

"I know that lady in the corner of the bus. I'll introduce you."

"Nae so fast."

"Why?"

"W'e it, mon, till she pays her fare."

One of the air rail pilots who fly between Chicago and Cleveland received an unexpected lesson in geography one day. He was flying westward when a storm came up. Fog enveloped him and he was driven by diverse air currents many miles out of his course. Then his engine went wrong and he was forced to descend.

"He was not quite certain what state he was in. As he neared the ground, however, the skies grew lighter and he saw a crowd of villagers running toward him through a field.

"They surrounded him as he landed.

"Where am I?" he asked.

"You are in Jerry Hendrick's cow pasture," said one of them.

"I thank yer kindly, sir, for yer generosity."

"But I haven't given you anything."

"Well, yer ain't goin' ter let me gratitude go ter waste, are yer?"

A New Yorker, one of the native-born type, who rarely leaves the confines of the greater city, took a vacation last summer and went with the New York ball club on its trip west. He saw many strange sights.

On the return trip the club stopped off at Buffalo and, never having seen Niagara Falls, as is the case with most New Yorkers, the players persuaded their fellow-traveler not to miss the opportunity.

He looked the falls over very carefully and returned to his hotel.

"Well, what do you think of it for a wonderful sight?" asked one of the ball players.

"I'll say," said the New Yorker, without undue enthusiasm, "that she certainly throws a mean leap."

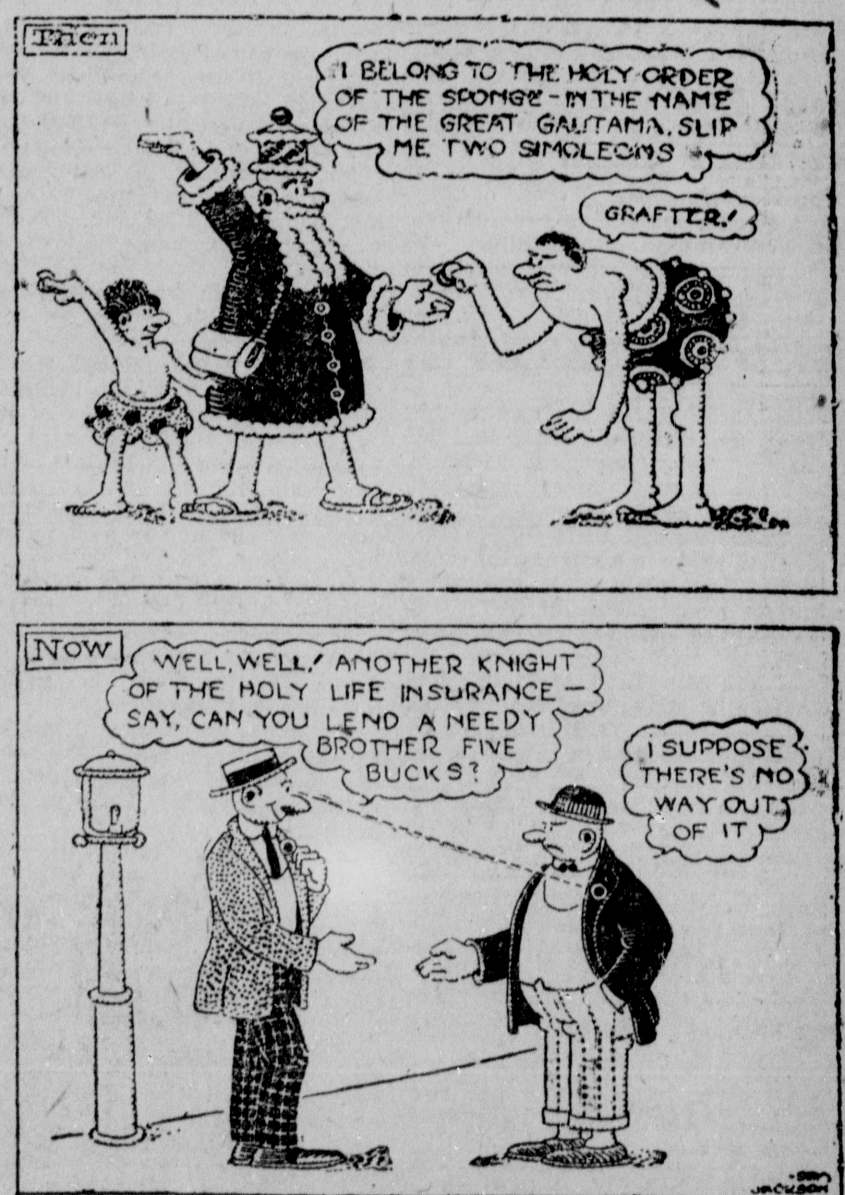

"Don't you think Mrs. Gaussip has a liquid voice?"

"Yes; the trouble is she neglects to turn off the tap."

"When I started out in life," said the physician, "I wanted to be a great humorist, but my family persuaded me to study medicine."

"Well," answered Uncle Bill Bottletop, soothingly, "mebbe you realized your original ambition, after all. Most of these liquor prescriptions you write are jokes."

COURT NEWS

Inheritance tax totalling $191.87 will be paid on the estate of Robert Bird, according to a Probate Court entry.

The net value of the estate was $38,686.38. The children, Frank S. Bird, Verna Conrard, Fred Bird, and Mary Bird, each were beneficiaries in the sum of $2,900, on which they are allowed $3,500 exemption with no tax to pay. The widow, Aletha S. Bird, is beneficiary in the sum of $24,186.38 on which she is allowed an exemption of $5,000 with a balance of $19,186.38 subject to tax.

CLAIMS COURT IN ERROR.

Claiming that J. E. Jones, Justice of the Peace in Xenia township, erred in his decision in sentencing them on a charge of having liquor in their possession, C. W. Jones and James Clark filed suit with Clerk of Courts Elam, Monday, against the State of Ohio.

The plaintiffs in error allege that they were found guilty of unlawfully having liquor in their possession, Aug. 13, and that August 16, 1921, their motion for a new trial was overruled by Magistrate Jones and they were sentenced to pay a fine of $300 each with the costs.

The petition states that first, the court erred in overruling the motion of the plaintiffs in error, to dismiss the motion, the motion being made at the close of the case for the state, for the reason that the state had failed to make out a case sufficient to law. Second, the petition states the court erred in finding the defendants guilty; third, that the court erred in overruling the motion for a new trial; fourth, that the judgment rendered is contrary to law; fifth, that the judgment is contrary to the evidence and sixth, that the judgment should have been for the plaintiffs in error.

The plaintiffs in error ask that the judgment be reversed and that they be restored to all that they have lost. Attorney F. L. Johnson represents the plaintiffs in error and Prosecutor J. Kenneth Williamson represents the state. The plaintiffs were arrested August 4 during the Fair at the Fairgrounds, in a raid conducted by Sheriff Funderburgh and Deputies Birch and Day and Spencer on stall No. 20, five bottles, four containing about a quart of liquor were confiscated, authorities said.

When a tea gown chooses the flaming red of a poppy as its color with lace dyed to match, it is impossible to ignore it, however simple its design. See it illustrated in the sketch here, with its plain chemise line and graceful girdle. The ends are weighted with gilt tassels. Satin or crepe de chine may be used to copy it.

Laced laces are a prominent feature in the French collection of robes d'intérieur, and when laces in natural color are used they are frequently posed over a color as in the pleated negligee, which is made of flesh voile very sheer, with a deeper shade of rose facing the upstanding lace neck. The same color is used in the ribbons.

Gracefully draped cape backs are another important item in these new things as well as various details borrowed from dresses, such as flat front and back effects and fulness gathered over the hips, the wide Jenny sleeve, ribbon lattice work and a liberal use of fringe.

CEDARVILLE DRIVE TO BE CONTINUED FOR NEXT 5 YEARS

Cedarville College's financial campaign is now in the hands of a permanent "continuance committee" which will carry it on during the next five years.

The campaign, launched several weeks ago with a $200,000 minimum goal, got through the first few weeks' work with a $200,000 minimum amount sought, pledged. The difference between the amount received and the minimum goal will be pledged within the next few weeks, it is believed, and then the campaign will be carried on for five years, the money to be used for permanent endowment.

The initial success of the drive, will place Cedarville College for the first time in the State Association of Colleges. Fulfilling the requirements of that Association, the board of trustees of the college voted from the funds recently subscribed, a sufficient amount to make up an endowment of $200,000.

Cedarville College previously had an endowment fund of $117,000, which with other resources, made the total endowment $132,000. The board voted $65,000 from the new fund to the endowment to make up the $200,000 endowment requirement. The rest of the money was voted to the fund for the erection of a science building and gymnasium which, while not a sufficient amount to erect the two, will be supplemented by future subscriptions to come in.

The addition of a chemistry building and gymnasium will then give the college full admittance in the State Association of Colleges. The "continuance committee," appointed to carry on the campaign to insure the erection of these buildings and later, of the erection of the girls' dormitory, is composed of Dr. W. R. McChesney, president of the college; the Rev. John P. White, D. D.; O. L. Smith, Dr. M. I. Marsh, George Hartman, J. D. Townsley, Ed Dean, W. L. Clemans, Walter Duff and Clayton McMillan.

Coach Blackburn of the college, has 22 football candidates practicing every afternoon. The school has purchased $400 worth of football equipment for its inauguration in the grid game, and a schedule is now being worked out. Coach Blackburn is also conducting gymnasium classes for both men and women every afternoon and evening.

WHEN MILK OR CREAM, SOURS

"There is no special section in my cook books devoted to recipes that help the housewife use up milk or cream that happens to sour," writes a column reader. "Won't you please give a number of such recipes?"

The following are good:

Sour Milk Corn Bread: 1 scant cup cornmeal, 1-2 cup flour, 1 well beaten egg, 1 cup thick sour milk, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 tablespoon melted beef dripping or butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt. Dissolve the soda in a little hot water, and add it to the sour milk. Sift the dry materials together, add to them the milk, the egg, and the melted shortening and turn into greased muffin rings. Bake about 30 minutes in a good oven. (Sour cream may be used instead of the milk if desired.)

Eggless Sour Milk Cookies: 1-2 cup butter, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup thick sour milk or cream, 3-4 teaspoon soda, 1-3 teaspoon ground cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon ground cloves, a pinch of salt, and 2 cups flour. Cream butter and sugar. Dissolve the soda in a very little hot water and add it to the milk. Mix all together, making a soft dough, flouring the board sparingly as you roll it out. It is best to chill it before rolling out. Roll thin, cut with cookie cutter, sprinkle each cookie with granulated sugar mixed with a little more cinnamon and bake about 8 minutes in a hot oven.

Emergency Biscuits: 2 cups flour, 1 tablespoon shortening, 1 cup thick

JOAN COMPLIMENTS HER MOTHER

CHAPTER 36

Margaret Hayden looked at her reflection in the small mirror atop the old-fashioned bureau in the hotel room. As she had before, she now quivered with delight at what she saw. Her hair softly dressed, little tendrils curling in her neck and about her face. Her shining eyes, the flush coming and going in her cheeks intrigued her. Then her dress! Neck and shoulders, white and smooth as a young girl's, rising from the soft rose chiffon and gray lace of her gown.

"Forty isn't old—very," she said smiling at her image, then laughing aloud as it smiled back.

If only she could escape before Joan came in! But—

"I won't be a coward—I'll wait for her," she declared, sitting down by the window through which she could see the path of the ocean.

She had turned out the light, and after a time she found herself dreaming as she looked out at the stars and the young moon just coming up.

Dreaming of what life might have been had she married a young man instead of an old one like John Hayden. If she had married him and he had lived—they had lived their lives together!

Suddenly she realized keenly that she had missed not only companionship, but love. She blushed at the thought. She knew that in the accepted meaning of the word she had missed it always. That love between man and woman was now, always had been, a sealed book to her.

"Shall I never know," she murmured, covering both her hot cheeks with her hands. "Must I always be satisfied to go on like this?"

A quick step, an outflung door and Joan was in the room.

"Hello! What you sitting in the dark for?" she called.

"Waiting for you, dear. I dressed, then it was such a lovely night that I put out the lights so I could see the stars. Come here—see that moon, it is like some young beautiful girl growing up, but just in the half-way stage, so white and innocent in its half state."

"It is lovely! I saw it down on the beach."

"Did you have a good time, dear?" "Lovely! Ted Walters—that's that blonde boy you saw in the water—asked me to play tennis tomorrow morning."

"Fine!" Margaret said with enthusiasm. "I do so love to have you enjoy yourself," she added. If there was a bit of diplomacy in her enthusiasm it could not be wondered at. "You play very well, Joan."

"Yes, my game is a fair one. He's awfully nice."

"He—who?" Margaret thought had strayed.

"Why, Ted Walters, of course!"

"He would be nice or you would not have cared for him." Again diplomacy might have been suspected.

"I like him almost better than any boy I know—unless it is Malcolm Frost. He isn't a bit foolish. One of his chums is, and I don't like him a bit. Always trying to say smart things, and acting up."

Margaret knew Craig Forrester was waiting, wondering why she did not come down, but she would not disturb Joan's confidences.

"Was that his mother, that pretty woman in pale lavender I saw talking to him?"

"Yes. Isn't she lovely? She looks like a piece of Dresden china. I said so, and it tickled Ted to death."

"Children usually like to hear their mothers praised," Margaret remembered, and she hoped Joan did also the night when Gloria Freeman and Malcolm Frost had told her she looked lovely in Joan's rose sweater.

"Time to go. I asked the maid to stay with you until you were in bed, and then to remain outside until I came up."

"Oh I forgot! It's the ball."

"Yes. Tell me if I look nice—as well as Ted Walters' mother will? I expect she will look wonderfully young and lovely. She did even in her beach dress."

"It's that ghost dress, isn't it?"

Joan queried soberly.

"Yes. Do you like it? Do I look nice?" The yearning in Margaret's voice must have reached Joan.

"You look perfectly beautiful, Mumsie! Better than Mrs. Walters—and that's going some I'll tell the world."

"Thank you, Joan. I would rather you would compliment me than anyone in the world," Margaret meant it. And she forgot to notice the slant in which the compliment had been couched.

This Letter Will Tell You How

"I suffered terribly every month, and was always tired and nervous, and had indigestion, and often could not do a thing. I was this way about two years, and had to stay home with my mother. I tried several medicines, then I found a book of yours, and mamma told me to try the Compound. So I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it certainly worked wonders with me. I have taken six bottles of it, and am still taking it when I feel the need of it. I have already recommended it to a number of working girls, who are taking it. I am working now, and stand up all day and feel fine. I am glad to say that Pinkham's medicine did a lot for me and for my mother, and we only wish we had taken it a long time before."—ROSE SCHOEFF, 4876 Annunciation St., New Orleans, La.

This letter is but one of a great number received every year from women, young and old, and from almost every walk of life. These letters testify to the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Schoeff works for her living, but on account of sickness was obliged to stay at home for two years. During this period she suffered terribly at times. She tried several medicines without finding relief. Finally she tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and in this letter tells what it did for her.

The Vegetable Compound contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and can be taken in safety by any woman. Your livelihood may depend on your health. So try
